ACACIA TECHNOLOGIES ACQUIRES RIGHTS TO AUDIO COMMUNICATIONS FRAUD DETECTION PATENTS

Newport Beach, Calif. – (BUSINESS WIRE) March 9, 2006 – Acacia Research Corporation (Nasdaq: ACTG; CBMX) announced today that Acacia Patent Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary that is part of the Acacia Technologies group, a leader in technology licensing, has acquired the rights to a portfolio of patents relating to the detection of fraud in connection with paid communication services, such as audio communications.

The patented technology generally relates to a process for detecting, reducing and preventing fraud in connection with payments for certain communication services, including audio sessions delivered via the telephone, Internet, and other communication networks.

“Acacia’s licensing success is attracting more companies that are selecting us as their partner for the licensing of their patented technologies,” commented Paul Ryan, Acacia Chairman and CEO. “Acacia is serving an unmet need in the market for companies that want to generate revenue from the licensing of their patented technologies”, concluded Mr. Ryan.
