ACACIA TECHNOLOGIES ACQUIRES RIGHTS TO PATENT FOR CONTINUOUS TV VIEWER MEASURING TECHNOLOGY

Newport Beach, CA. – (BUSINESS WIRE) December 14, 2005 – Acacia Research Corporation (Nasdaq: ACTG: CBMX) announced today that Acacia Patent Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary that is part of the Acacia Technologies group, a leader in technology licensing, has acquired rights to a patent relating to technology for the continuous monitoring of television viewer behavior.

The patented technology, unlike prior systems that take snapshots of tuning to assess viewership, relates to uninterrupted and passive continuous monitoring and measuring of television viewers' actions. Measurements include channel changes, channel surfing, video-on-demand and DVR viewership captured through the set-top box, stored and transmitted to a remote location for aggregation.

“Many technology companies are selecting Acacia as their partner for the licensing of their patented technologies,” commented Paul Ryan, Acacia Chairman and CEO. “Acacia is serving an unmet need in the marketplace for companies that want to generate revenue from the licensing of their patented technologies,” concluded Mr. Ryan.

ABOUT ACACIA RESEARCH CORPORATION
